

NOTICE OF EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Post Date:

May 26, 2017

Job Title:

Wireless Compliance Technician, EMC/EMI Testing

Summary:

This position applies technical RF concepts for testing and evaluation of electronic and wireless RF devices for US federal and international regulatory compliance in an engineering laboratory environment. Evaluating and testing wireless RF and electronic devices, executing test plans, developing test procedures for determining compliance with regulatory standards in a timely manner to meet client expectations. All training provided.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Perform compliance testing with a variety of laboratory measurement equipment
- Compile detailed test results using MS Word, MS Excel and Adobe Acrobat
- Evaluate cutting edge wireless devices and apply applicable standards
- Collaborate in a team environment and assist in development and improvement of test methodologies, test plan preparation, reporting, etc.
- Maintain laboratory test methods and test equipment

Desired Skills and Experience:

1. Associates Degree or Technical School Certificate Preferred
2. Organized, fast learner, team player, detail oriented
3. Must be motivated and show initiative and eagerness to learn
4. Position: Full time 40 hours per week (paid overtime as required)

Hours: Full time, weekend, evening (with differential)
Travel: As Required
Annual Salary: Commensurate with qualifications and/or experience
Send inquiries to: work@pctest.com
Post Expires: Until filled